Southern Alberta Professional Development Consortium and Alberta Regional Professional Development Consortia

Assembling Strength: Pathways to Reconciliation

This is Your Invitation to Submit a Session Presentation

We are calling for presenters to share your reconciliation journey as a classroom teacher or school leader at the gathering by submitting a proposal for a 75 minute session.

Proposals will be accepted until January 28th, 2019. A diverse range of schools will be participating, so organizers will consider a broad spectrum of proposals. Presenters will be notified by February 4th, 2019 if their presentation has been selected. Thank you to all for your submissions.

Assembling Strength: Pathways to Reconciliation will occur on Wednesday, May 22nd, 2019 in Lethbridge. We are calling for presenters to share at this gathering about their reconciliation journey as classroom teachers or school leaders by submitting a proposal for a 75 minute session. Sessions will be focused on the four interrelated quadrants from Weaving Ways including Cultures of Belonging, Instructional Design, Pedagogy, and Sharing through Story.
